

Notice

All the students of A. N. College Patna who are interested to avail the Coursera online learning resources are required to register themselves for obtaining institutional email ids through the link provided on the college website latest by 5.00pm, August, 10, 2020. The registration link will be closed after this deadline. After obtaining institutional email id, students will be required to register on Coursera link for their desired courses.